It is the constant endeavour of the Archaeological Survey of India to maintain its monuments in good shape. Conservation, chemical preservation and environmental development of the centrally protected monuments are taken up as per requirements on site subject to availability of man power, and financial resources.

As per information made available by the field office, a Public Interest Litigation has been filed by Heritage & Culture Forum in the

As and when the encroachment is noticed/reported in the protected/prohibited area the Superintending Archaeologist's immediately issues a notice to the encroachers under the provisions of section 19(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Act 1958 and Rule 38(1) of the Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Sites and Remains Rules 1959. Simultaneously help from the local police is also sought by lodging a complaint and by registering FIR.

When no response is received from the encroachers the Central Government (Director General, Archaeological Survey of India) issues a notice under section 19(2) of A.M.A.S.R. Act, 1958 and Rule 38(1) of A.M.A.S.R. Rules, 1959 ordering the illegal occupant to vacate the occupied site and to remove the illegal constructions. An order issued by the Director General is also sent to the District Collector with the request to demolish the illegal construction. If the above procedure fails to yield any fruitful result against the encroachers by failing cases in the court of law.
